

Diploma Certificate issued by the Canadian Cinema Academy in Film Direction and Acting:

**Diploma in Film Direction:****

This diploma grants graduates comprehensive skills in the art of film direction. The program covers all aspects of directorial operations, starting from screenplay analysis and direction planning to guiding actors and managing production. This certificate enables students to emerge equipped with the necessary skills to work as professional directors in the film industry.

**Diploma in Acting:****

This program focuses on developing performance skills and a deep understanding of dramatic arts. It includes the study of character development, scene analysis, and acting techniques. Graduates are qualified to enter the world of acting in cinema and television.

**Courses in Cinematic Video Production:****

These courses allow participants to acquire the necessary skills to produce professional cinematic video clips. The content includes the study of production planning, scene shooting, and post-production stages. Students learn how to transform their ideas into cinematic works ready for screening.

**Courses in Cinematic Special Effects:****

These courses focus on the art of visual effects in cinema, covering traditional visual effects to digital techniques. Students learn how to create special effects and visual illusions that enhance the quality and realism of cinematic scenes.

These diploma certificates represent a significant achievement that reflects excellence and proficiency in the fields of film direction and acting. These certificates provide students with the opportunity to enter the cinema and multimedia industry with strong qualifications and specialized training.